FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Changes at Century National Bank

ATHENS, Ohio – Patrick L. Nash, President & CEO of Century National Bank, is pleased to announce Brian Hall, Commercial Lending Vice President, as Banking Center Manager of the Bank's Athens Office, and the promotion of Assistant Banking Center Manager, Sandy Wachenschwanz, to Administrative Manager.

Brian Hall joined Century National Bank in 2005 as a Commercial Lending Vice President. Hall will continue as a Commercial Lending Vice President as he takes on the additional responsibility of the Athens Banking Center Manager.

Hall received his bachelor's degree from The Ohio State University's Fisher College of Business. He graduated with cum laude honor.

As a resident of Athens, Hall is very active in serving the community. He volunteers his time for organizations including CASA/GAL, Habitat for Humanity, Athens AM Rotary, Big Brothers Big Sisters, and the Workforce Policy Board. Hall and his wife, Angela, have three children and one grandchild.

Sandy Wachenschwanz began her career with Century National Bank in December of 2005 as a Personal Banker. Since March of 2012, Sandy has enjoyed serving as the Assistant Banking Center Manager and will continue in this position as an Administrative Manager.

Wachenschwanz is a graduate of Apostolic Lighthouse Christian School in Albany. She has six children and seven grandchildren. Wachenschwanz resides in Albany with her husband, Bob.

Together with their combined 68 years of banking experience, Hall & Wachenschwanz will continue to serve their customers with confidence and ease as they provide any personal or business deposit or loan products needed.
